Penguin Loves Mev In the UK

The Way He Tidies Up

I don't understand why.

Why Mev isn't sensitive enough to remember things like where things go

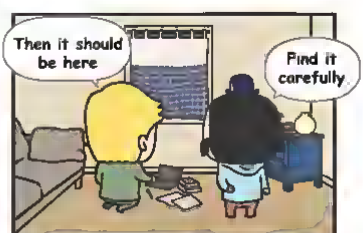
I can answer it so easily.

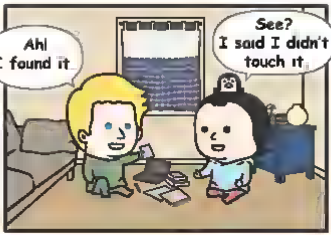
Mev would never be able to answer these.

So if I tidy up his things,
I normally put them in the right place.

However, Mev sometimes complains about it.

As I like tidying up things,...





... he often suspects me.

Anyway, what he saying is...

...he should tidy up his own mess

So,
the way Mev tidies up something

Ah, the bedroom is done.
Oho!

Arranged.

Well, he kind of proved that it still can be look tidy
without putting them away
